This succinct paperback will fill a major information void for students and recent graduates who are interested in a legal career outside the typical large, corporate law firm. Beyond the Big Firm offers more than 30 compelling profiles of lawyers who have chosen to follow nontraditional legal careers, in a wide range of subject areas, practice settings, and types of work. This distinctive book explores the many possibilities open to law school graduates interested in "alternative" career choices. The editors of this engaging compilation are long-time public interest lawyers; the actual authors of the profiles are primarily students who capture the personalities of the subjects in a way that is sure to resonate with the audience because they share the same questions about career choices. The subjects of the profiles have been out of law school 10-15 years, they represent 18 law schools, and they work in 15 states. The lawyers profiled have jobs in governments, nonprofits, and small private firms; both civil and criminal law practice are covered, including prosecutors and defense counsel. Some of the fields that the lawyers work in include civil rights, civil liberties, immigration, personal injury, and human rights.

In addition to the fascinating profiles, special features include:

- a special resources chapter to help students determine and follow their career choice
- a final chapter with mini-profiles of 3 lawyers who are not practicing law, but for whom their legal training is vital to their work
- short essays by current and former Stanford Law School deans Larry Kramer and Kathleen Sullivan
