From Oxford University Press, USA : Blackstones Civil Practice 201 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Blackstones Civil Practice 201:

Providing authoritative description and analysis of the process of civil litigation in the county courts and in the High Court, this title combines a narrative commentary with the full text of the Civil Procedure Rules, Practice Directions and Pre-Action Protocols and Practice Guides.

from previous edition: "A new friend, but now a constant companion. An essential first point of reference for all levels of civil law practitioners." --District Judge Sehdev, Birmingham Civil and Family Justice Centre"Being in one volume and having a user-friendly index, it is an indispensable tool for the busy judge." --District Judge Ackroyd"An up to date text book, reference book and exceptionally practical guide rolled into one priceless volume, I have no hesitation in strongly recommending Blackstone's Civil Practice 2011 as an essential first point of call for all Deputy and Full Time District Judges (Civil). If you were to buy only one book to help you with all aspects of the civil jurisdiction then this is surely it." --District Judge Lumb, Midlands Circuit"No civil practitioner should be without the latest edition of Blackstone's Civil Practice. Concise yet compendious, this publication contains not only the full text of the Civil Procedure Rules and Practice Directions, but also a clearly written commentary on all aspects of civil procedure (from commencement of proceedings all the way through to appeals and enforcement of judgments and orders). Blackstone's Civil Practice should be one of the core reference works in any civil practitioner's library." --David Wicks, Barrister, Pump Court Chambers"Clear, weighty and attractively set out Blackstone's Civil Practice is a comprehensive resource for the civil practitioner." --Alison Hawes, Partner, TLT LLPAbout the AuthorStuart Bridge (Editorial Advisory Board) is a Circuit Judge on the South Eastern Circuit and a Life Fellow of Queens' College, Cambridge.
