Kenneth W. Clarkson, Roger LeRoy Miller, Frank B. Cross : Business Law: Text and Cases (THIRTEENTH EDITION) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Business Law: Text and Cases (THIRTEENTH EDITION):

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Better than ExpectedBy BaracasBetter than Expected! I am an attorney that had to take this class as part of a certificate in Finance. I was tested in areas that I have not studied in years or am not exposed to, e.g. HR, patents and trademarks, etc. Some areas are more detailed for a law student. This is an interesting book with plenty of examples, well organized, and I gave it 4 stars because it is probably more detailed than a general business student will need in the future. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Nice and clean 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Could Be BetterBy CustomerThis textbook would be more helpful if was written like it was written for students and not people who already know this information. A lot of re-reading had to be done to try to understand what they were saying and this is the second business law class I've taken. There were a ton of words that I didn't know how to pronounce and no where did it explain how to say them either.

Comprehensive, authoritative, and student-friendly, longtime market-leader BUSINESS LAW: TEXT AND CASES delivers an ideal blend of classic "black letter law" and cutting-edge coverage of contemporary issues and cases. BUSINESS LAW continues to set the standard for excellence. The text offers a strong student orientation, making the law accessible, interesting, and relevant. The cases, content, and features of the thirteenth edition have been thoroughly updated to represent the latest developments in business law. Cases range from precedent-setting landmarks to important recent decisions. Ethical, global, and corporate themes are integrated throughout. In addition, numerous critical-thinking exercises challenge students to apply knowledge to real-world issues. It is no wonder that BUSINESS LAW is used by more colleges and universities than any other business law text.

About the Author Roger LeRoy Miller studied at the University of California at Berkeley and the University of Chicago. He has been on the staff of a number of universities, including the University of Washington, Clemson University, and the University of Miami School of Law, where he taught, among other subjects, intellectual property and entertainment law. He has published in the Insurance Counsel Journal, Defense Research, California Trial Lawyers Journal, Antitrust Bulletin, Wisconsin Law, and Connecticut Law. He has authored or co-authored numerous leading textbooks, including BUSINESS LAW: TEXT AND CASES, THE LEGAL ENVIRONMENT OF BUSINESS: TEXT AND CASES, BUSINESS LAW TODAY, FUNDAMENTALS OF BUSINESS LAW, and THE LEGAL ENVIRONMENT TODAY. Frank B. Cross is the Herbert D. Kelleher Centennial Professor of Business Law at The University of Texas at Austin Law School, where his research centers on judicial decision-making, the economics of law and litigation, and traditional policy and doctrinal issues in administrative law. He has written several books as well as pieces for the Yale Law Journal, Columbia Law, University of Chicago Law, New York University Law, Texas Law, Virginia Law, Cornell Law, Georgetown Law Journal, Northwestern Law, and UCLA Law. A former president of the Academy of Legal Studies in Business, Professor Cross received his B.A. from the University of Kansas and J.D. from Harvard Law School.
