

California Legal Malpractice Law

J. Randolph Evans, Shari L. Klevens, Suzann Y Badawi
*ebooks | Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#1174747 in Books 2014-04-16Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 .0 x .0 x .0l, .0 #File Name:
157625724X368 pages | File size: 21.Mb

J. Randolph Evans, Shari L. Klevens, Suzann Y Badawi : California Legal Malpractice Law before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised California Legal Malpractice Law:

California Legal Malpractice Law is available as a paperback and in EPUB format, with hyperlinks to the full text of cases, statutes and other authoritative content. In this new era of technology, patent disputes, mega law firm mergers, and business globalization, the threat of legal malpractice has become a part of the modern day law practice. California

Legal Malpractice Law offers practical guidance, including effective claim prevention and loss avoidance. Two Cases in One Defending a malpractice case requires not only an understanding of legal malpractice law, but the substantive law of the underlying the lawsuit or transaction. Lately there has been a rise in claims from intellectual property, real estate, personal injury, bankruptcy, and securities matters. And in California, claims from entertainment law are growing. Randy Evans, Shari Klevens, and Suzanne Y. Badawi offer practical solutions in avoiding and handling legal malpractice claims. California Legal Malpractice Identifies Legal Malpractice Law and Defenses Legal Elements of a Claim Using Experts in a Malpractice Claim Liability for or in Conjunction With the Conduct of Others Defenses to Legal Malpractice Claims Instructs in Legal Malpractice Prevention Structuring a Law Firm To Reduce Risk Under California Law Identifying and Resolving Conflicts of Interest Email and Attorney Marketing: New Issues in 21st Century Law Practice Ethics for the Trial Practitioner Sanctions Advises on Insurance and Loss Avoidance The Tripartite Relationship Handling a Claim: Four Steps for Attorneys Who Discover an Error or Receive a Legal Malpractice Claim Authors Pay it Forward Consistent with that guiding principle, all royalties from California Legal Malpractice Law will go to the California Bar Foundation to help fund a diversity scholarship for a student facing hardship based on family obligations.

About the Author J. Randolph Evans J.Randolph Evans is the chair of the Financial Institutions practice at McKenna Long Aldridge. He handles high profile, complex litigation matters in Georgia and federal courts for some of the largest companies in the world. He is a frequent lecturer and prolific author on the subjects of professional liability and ethics. He has authored or co-authored seven books, including The Practical Guide to Legal Malpractice Prevention (Eighth Ed. 2000) and The Practice Guide to Purchasing Legal Malpractice Insurance (Third Ed. 1999). He handles high-profile, complex litigation matters around the United States. Shari L. Klevens Shari L. Klevens is a partner and is the Deputy General Counsel at the law firm of McKenna Long Aldridge. She represents lawyers and law firms in the defense of legal malpractice claims and advises and counsels lawyers concerning claims for malpractice, ethical violations, and breaches of duty. Shari is the Practice Group Leader for McKenna Long Aldridge LLPs Law Firm Practice Group and is a frequent writer and lecturer on issues related to legal malpractice. Shari also litigates complex commercial cases in state and federal courts across the country. She has authored or co-authored two other books: Georgia Legal Malpractice Law (ALM 2014) and The Lawyers Handbook: Ethics Compliance and Claim Avoidance (ALM 2013). Shari is a member of the ABAs Standing Committee on Lawyers Professional Liability. Suzanne Y. Badawi Suzanne Y. Badawi is Special Counsel at the law firm of Sheppard, Mullin, Richter Hampton. She is an appointed member of the California State Bar Committee on Professional Liability Insurance (COPLI), which administers the bar-sponsored lawyers Errors Omissions insurance program. She is also a member of her Firms Law Firm Defense Initiative Committee that focuses on legal malpractice law, trends, insurance, and avoidance. She is a frequent lecturer on professional liability and insurance laws in California. Suzanne also litigates insurance cases in state and federal courts throughout California. Suzanne is the sole California Bar admitted attorney of the authors.