Theodore H. Gordon : California Real Estate Law: Text Cases before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised California Real Estate Law: Text Cases:

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Great for Brokers, OK for AttorneysBy CustomerDefinitely geared towards brokers. If you are an attorney its a good book to refresh law school concepts. I wouldn't use it as a substitute for a practice guide.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy CustomerPerfectly new as advertised and quick shipping! Thanks!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy CustomerPerfect condition and great price.

Real estate professionals appreciate Gordon's user-friendly approach and real-life application of real estate law. This definitive text provides a balanced, detailed and extremely practical statement of California real estate law. More than 230 case studies are fully digested to enhance learning and clearly demonstrate commonly encountered areas of real estate law. New and recent updates to real estate laws in California are included along with tips on how to apply the laws discussed. End-of-chapter questions and two comprehensive sample tests with answers and rational help check user understanding.

From the PublisherThe text provides not only the basic law, but also the tools and information students need to think and apply the law in everyday "real-world" situations. This exploration of current cases makes the law come alive for students.
From the Back CoverKey Benefit:The text provides not only the basic law, but also the tools and information readers need to think and apply the law in everyday real- world situations. This exploration of current cases makes the law come alive for users. Key Topics: A detailed clause-by-clause analysis of leases, deposit receipts, listing agreements, and deeds of trust. New coverage of alternate dispute resolution, toxic waste and environmental controls, and consumers' rights. The text makes liberal use of charts, diagrams, and practical notes on the practice of law as they relate to the real estate practice.
About the AuthorTed combines his law experience (he is listed in "Who's Who in American Law"), his business background (including a Masters of Business Administration degree) and real estate brokerage knowledge (he was named the "Real Estate Personality of the Week" by the San Jose Mercury Newspaper). Ted was an adjunct professor at Golden Gate University (San Francisco) and a practicing attorney for many years before retiring. Ted was also a past speaker at the National Association Of Real Estate Boards convention (now called NAR). In college Ted was ECSBO chairman, which was his school's functional equivalent of President of the School of Business.
