Barbara Mitchels, Helen James : Child Care and Protection: Law and Practice (Wildy Practice Guide) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Child Care and Protection: Law and Practice (Wildy Practice Guide):

Formerly published as part of the popular "Practice Notes" series and written by experienced practitioners, the fourth edition provides a practical and concise guide to the Children Act 1989, subsequent legislation, guidance and case law. The new material covered in this edition includes: "Every Child Matters, the Children Act 2004", the new edition of "Working Together to Safeguard Children" (2006), the new "Children Act 1989 Guidance, Volume 1 Court Orders", the content and impact of the new "Public Law Outline (PLO)" and important recent cases. This book does not include the separate field of adoption law, but selected relevant provisions of the "Adoption and Children Act 2002" and the "Children and Adoption Act 2006" are included. In addition to explaining the general principles of the law relating to child care and protection, the authors provide valuable insights into assessments, care planning, expert evidence, taking instructions, case preparation and courtroom skills. Presented in a compact, user-friendly format, the book also contains checklists and flowcharts which will prove invaluable to the busy practitioner.

About the Author Barbara Mitchels is a Children Panel solicitor and also a practising psychotherapist. She combines these disciplines in providing mediation, consultancy and training with Working with Children and Watershed Counselling Service. Helen James has wide experience in social work and as a children's guardian. She is an independent social work consultant, trainer, and a Director of Family Practice UK Ltd (an Independent Social Work Agency).
