From Office of the Federal Register : Code of Federal Regulations, Title 11, Federal Elections, Revised as of January 1, 2014 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Code of Federal Regulations, Title 11, Federal Elections, Revised as of January 1, 2014:

Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Title 11, Federal Elections establishes the conditions under which the Federal Election Commission may identify and respond to petitions for rulemaking, and informs the public of the procedures the agency follows in response to such petitions. Additionally, this volume defines the positions and roles of many of the common participants in a Federal election ranging from candidates, political and party committees, leadership Political Action Committees (PAC), etc. It also covers the definition about the types of campaign contributions and exclusions to contributions are explored. Voter registration and volunteer activity are also included as it relates to Federal elections. The second section of this CFR Title 11, Federal Elections volume covers the Election Assistance Committee primarily covering procedures relating to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests and types of fees associated with these requests. The National Voter Registration Act, record-keeping and reporting, as well as operation are covered, plus some procedures relating to debt collection.
