m james : IMMIGRATION.guide to Italy: IMMIGRATION.guide to Italy before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised IMMIGRATION.guide to Italy: IMMIGRATION.guide to Italy:

Immigration, has given the European nations the serious problem of solving the acceptance and the integration of the newcomers into their nations. How to balance the necessary opening of the borders with the interests of their own citizens who might feel threatened in their primary needs (for example they think about the lack of work places). It is with this in mind, and in general to ask the question WHY DO THEY HATE US ? In these pages, every non EU member can find -synthesized and simplified - the principle laws necessary to live in these countries taking Italy as an example people are worried about foreigners stealing their places of work,and the insurgency of different crimes that comes with immigrant due to lack of ingnorance of their Host country laws. A kind of which one can refer in order to know immediately the correct way to behave; what to do or what not to do, what to expect from the public authorities and who to turn to; what his rights and his obligations, are what constitutes a crime in Italy, what procedure to take in order to legalize his status, and so on. I hope i have produced something useful for both the foreigners who often violate the laws due to ignorance and lack of understanding, and for the Italians and the Institutions who will be able to live alongside, in an atmosphere of mutual respect, with foreigners who know and follow the laws of the country where they found themselves. Coming to somebody's country without prior knowledge of what might come your way can be more frustrating than you ever imagined, in this one fees not wanted or hated by the Host country. The answer is simple just know few things before setting out on the journey. Foreigners rights and duties In Italy, every non European foreigner that is someone from a country outside the EU has the same fundamental human rights provided for by internal and international law (for example, a foreigner can freely defend his rights in a court the same way as any Italian citizen).
