From Amer Immigration Lawyers Assn : Immigration Law the Family before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Immigration Law the Family:

Immigration Law the Family edited by Charles Wheeler - Still the Gold Standard for Family-Sponsored Immigration Law. Now Available from AILA Publications! Family immigration has seen significant changes over the last 2 years. Edited by Charles Wheeler, the second edition of Immigration Law the Family has been completely updated to address these changes. It includes discussion of: conditional residency, fiance(e)s, and widow petitions; relief for surviving family members; the latest guidance on consular processing -- including fees, procedures, and electronic processing; interpretations and agency guidance on grounds of inadmissibility; tips on filing waivers for applicants found inadmissible; affidavits of support; self-petitioning for abused family members; ethical considerations and more! Charles Wheeler's family immigration book has been the go-to reference immigration practitioners have relied on for years. Order your copy today of this completely updated and affordable reference -- only from AILA Publications!
