Yale University Southeast Asia Studies : Indigenous Peoples and the State: Politics, Land, and Ethnicity in the Malayan Peninsula and Borneo (Southeast Asia Studies Monograph Series) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Indigenous Peoples and the State: Politics, Land, and

Ethnicity in the Malayan Peninsula and Borneo (Southeast Asia Studies Monograph Series):

Ten essays explore the differences and similarities among various indigenous minorities of the Malayan Peninsula and Borneo. All concern the relationship between indigenous groups and large societies as defined by the state.

...should interest anyone concerned about minority and ethnic issues in Southeast Asia...most (of the authors) write with sympathy about the peoples they have studied and respected for years, and whose traditional cultures and lifestyles they see threatened..." ---C.A. Lockard
