Patrick Reddin : Inspecting and Diagnosing Disrepair before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Inspecting and Diagnosing Disrepair:

Inspecting and Diagnosing Disrepair provides housing officers, surveyors, landlords, tenants, lawyers and environmental health inspectors with the essential information they need to record, diagnose and remedy disrepair. Pat

Reddin presents technical information methodically, including useful diagrams to help readers to develop an understanding of building materials and structures and to advise and take action on disrepair. The book is fully up to date with the latest legislation and is essential reading for environmental health professionals, surveyors and students alike.

About the Author Patrick Reddin (1947-2015) was a Director of Reddin Company Limited, Chartered Building Surveyors and Corporate Building Engineers, London, and Executive Director of ABE Enterprises. He was also a Past President of the ABE.
