From Springer : International Law in Historical Perspective:Vol. XII:Index before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised International Law in Historical Perspective:Vol. XII:Index:

This volume completes the monumental, eleven-volume series, International Law in Historical Perspective, which was published over a period of 24 years by Professor J.H.W. Verzijl (and continued after his death in 1987 by W.P. Heere and J.P.S. Offerhaus). This index volume provides insight into the series both for the uninitiated and initiated, enabling the user to access all 11 volumes (spanning a total of 6500 printed pages) quickly and easily. It contains a subject index, an index of personal names, of geographical names, of ships' names, a list of treaties, a list of international judgements and a list of international arbitrations. A list of Professor Verzijl's commentaries on the more recent jurisprudence of the International Court of Justice completes the volume.
