From Martinus Nijhoff : International Law: New ActorsNew Concepts - Continuing Dilemmas before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised International Law: New ActorsNew Concepts - Continuing Dilemmas:

The Liber Amicorum is published on the occasion of the retirement of Professor Bozidar Bakotic from the University of Zagreb, Faculty of Law, after an impressive career that started in 1961. His colleagues and former students have contributed to this collection of essays dealing with a variety of topics in the fields of international law which Professor Bakotic himself has been most active in. Therefore, the majority of essays deal with the subjects of international law, the various international regimes of spaces, the international protection of human rights and humanitarian law, the settlement of international disputes and the law of armed conflicts. Notwithstanding the specific international developments over the last twenty years in the geographic area where Professor Bakotic has served (Southeastern Europe), all the authors of the contributions to this Liber Amicorum have dealt with their topics at the level of general international law. The book comprises 32 essays from scholars who had close relations with Professor Bakotic in the course of his career at the Zagreb Faculty of Law, in various other law schools and international organisations, in the International Law Association, in the Croatian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and its Diplomatic Academy. The majority of essays are in English and six are in French.
