From Brill - Nijhoff : International Organizations and Member State Responsibility: Critical Perspectives (Nova Et Vetera Iuris Gentium) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised International Organizations and Member State Responsibility: Critical Perspectives (Nova Et Vetera Iuris Gentium):

International Organizations and Member State Responsibility: Critical Perspectives is the first international public law book entirely devoted to the topic of member state responsibility. Throughout its ten contributions, it takes stock of the legal developments brought about by the International Law Commission's work on international responsibility, and critically unveils the major remaining conceptual gaps in the field. The novel approaches offered in the book serve as a repository of the various understandings within academia and legal practice that reflect the evolution of the contemporary law of international (member state) responsibility. Contributors: Ana Sofia Barros, Cedric Ryngaert, Jan Wouters, Antonios Tzanakopoulos, Catherine Brolmann, Esa Paasivirta, Francesco Messineo, Ige Dekker, Jean d'Aspremont, Niels Blokker, Paolo Palchetti, Ramses Wessel, Tom Dannenbaum This Volume was previously published as International Organizations Law Review Vol. 12, issue 2 (2015).
