Kieran Finnane : Trouble before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Trouble:

What is going on in the often troubled town of Alice Springs? Trouble goes into the ordered environment of the courtroom to lay out in detail some of the dark disorder in the town's recent history. Men kill their wives, kill one another in seeming senseless acts of revenge, families feud, women join the violence, children watch and learn from the sidelines. Journalist Kieran Finnane follows the stories through witness accounts, recognizing the horror and tragedy of violent events, and the guilt or innocence of perpetrators. She draws on a 25-year practice of journalism in Alice Springs, as well as experience of its everyday life, to add fine grain to the portrait of a town and region being painfully remade.

About the Author Kieran Finnane is a founding journalist at the Alice Springs News, an independent weekly started by Central Australia's longest serving journalist, Erwin Chlanda, in 1994. Kieran also writes for national publications such as Crikey, Griffith, Art Monthly Australia and Artlink.
